Written and Illustrated by Emre

Once in an island there lived a girl named Karana. She lived in a tiny village. She had a little brother named Ramo.

Karana's dad was the chief. He was called Chief Chowig. Karana's mother died.

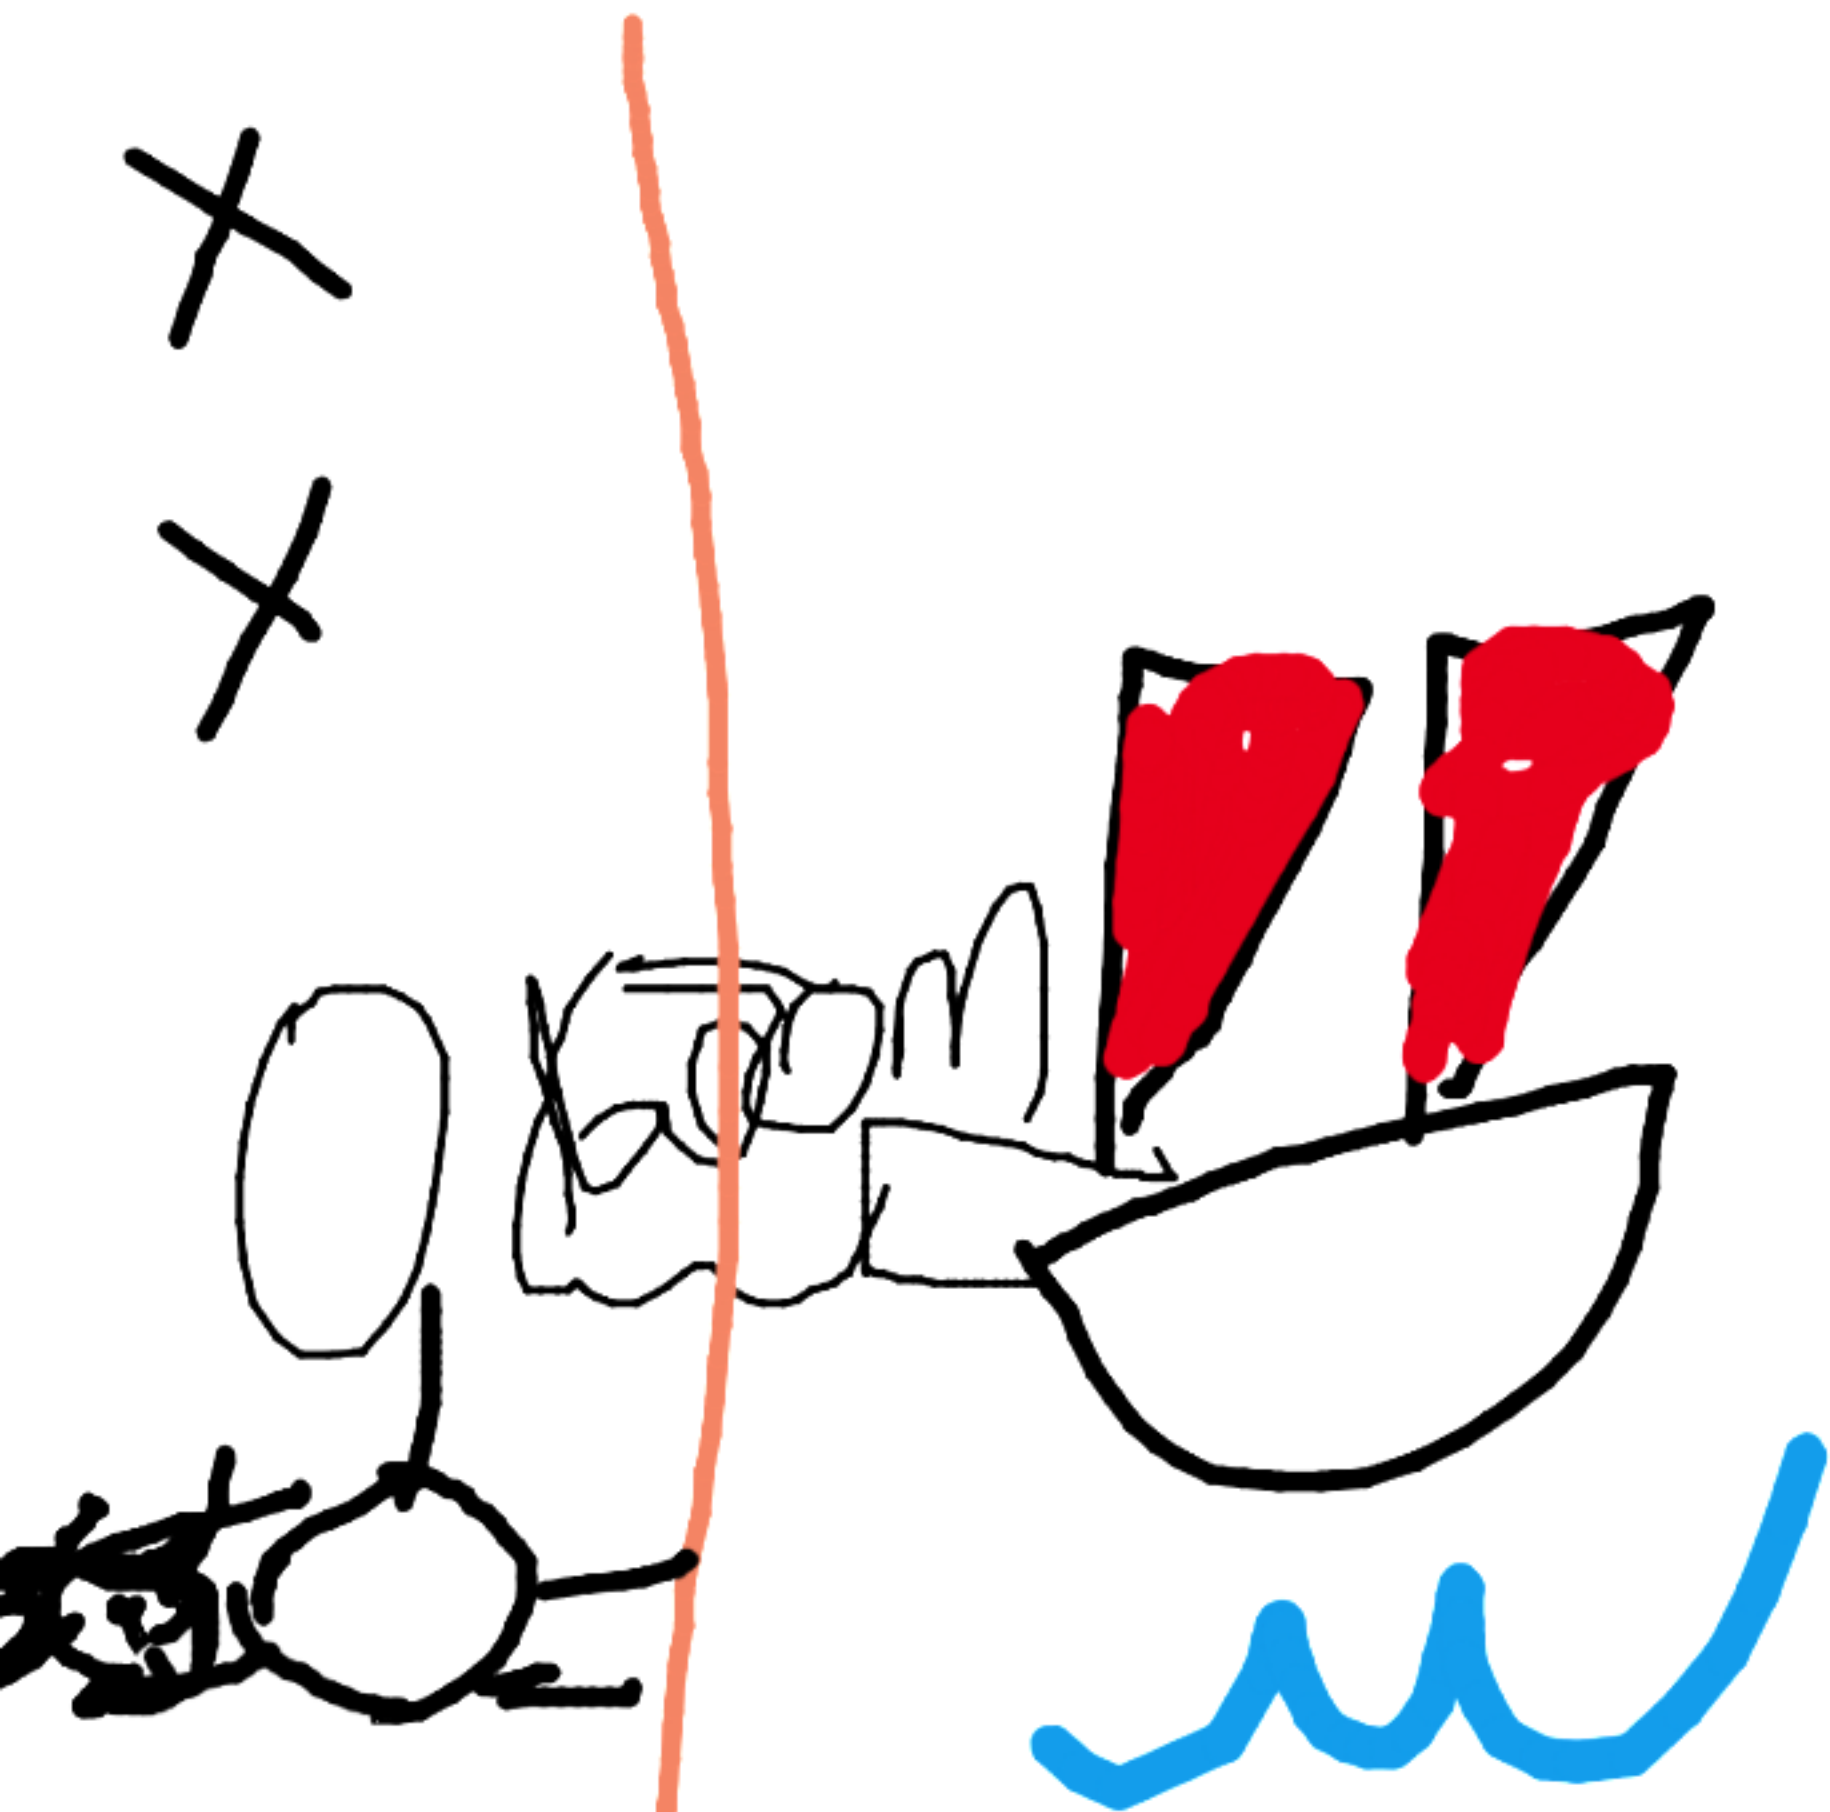

One day the Aleuts came. They come from the north. They came to hunt the otters.

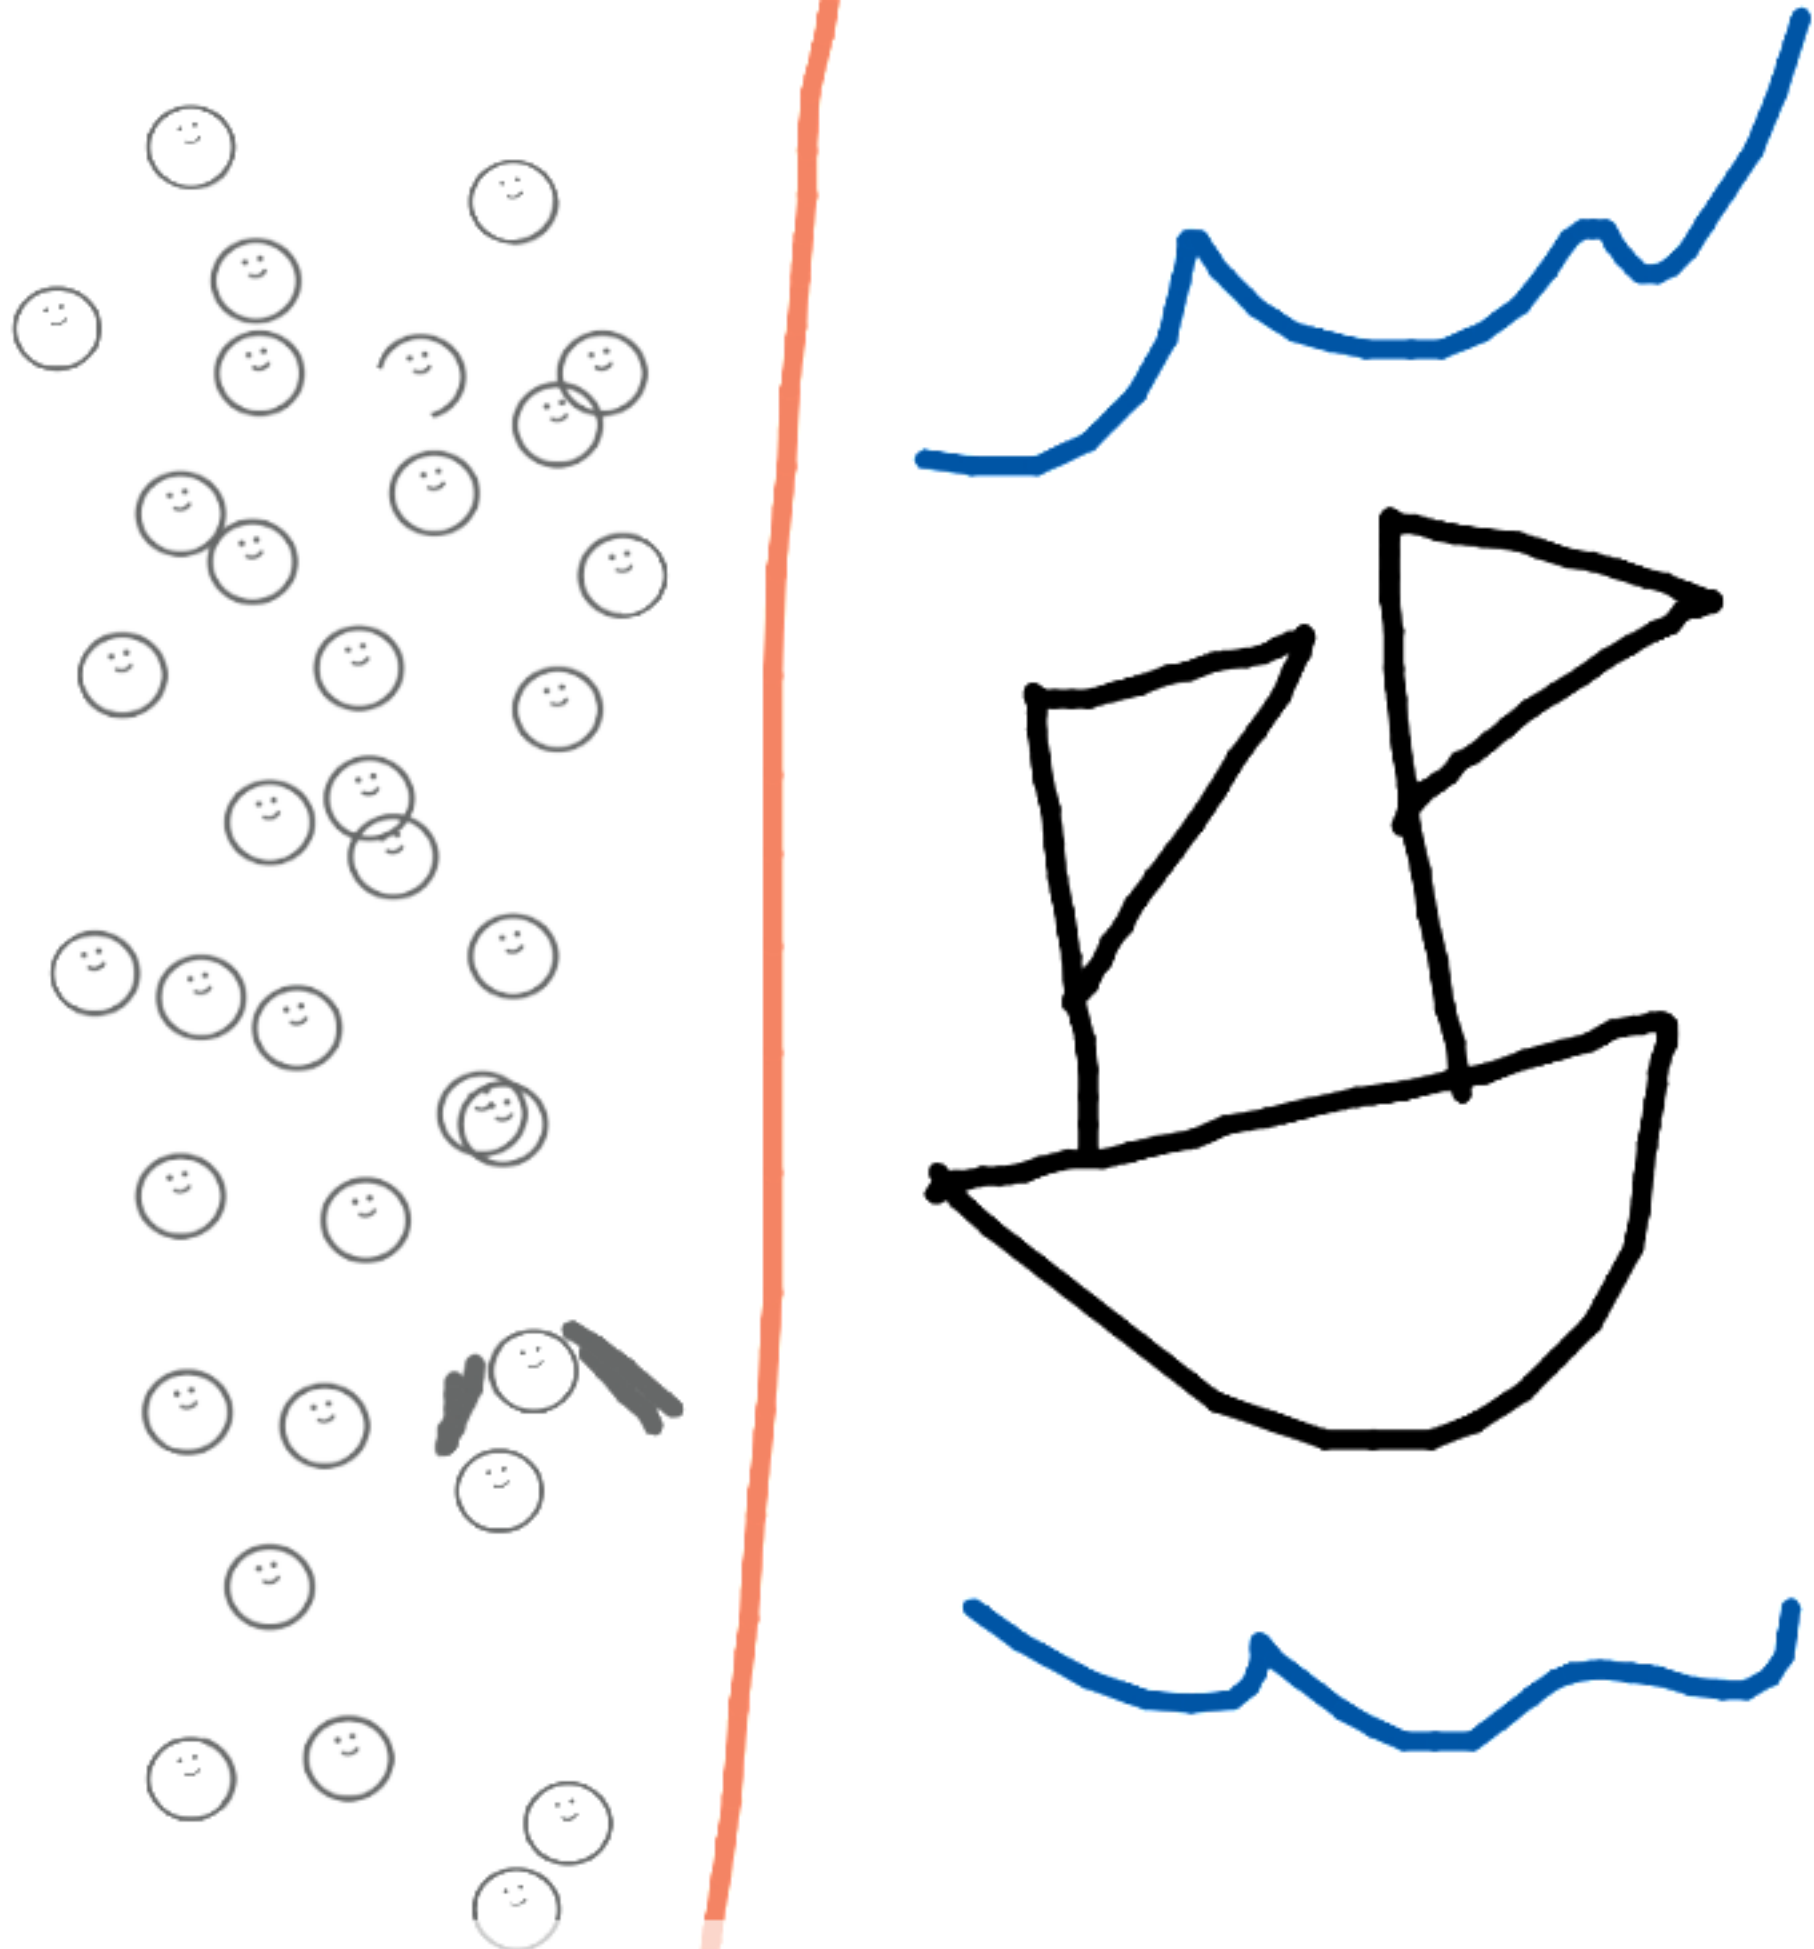

The Aleuts wanted to camp at their island. They said That they can get more of the otter because they were the ones working. The chief did not agree with this.

So the parts were equal. The Aleuts camped on the island. There were spies from each camp.

When the Aleuts were leaving, they killed 27 out of 42 men. There were only 15 men left. The Aleuts also killed Karana's dad.

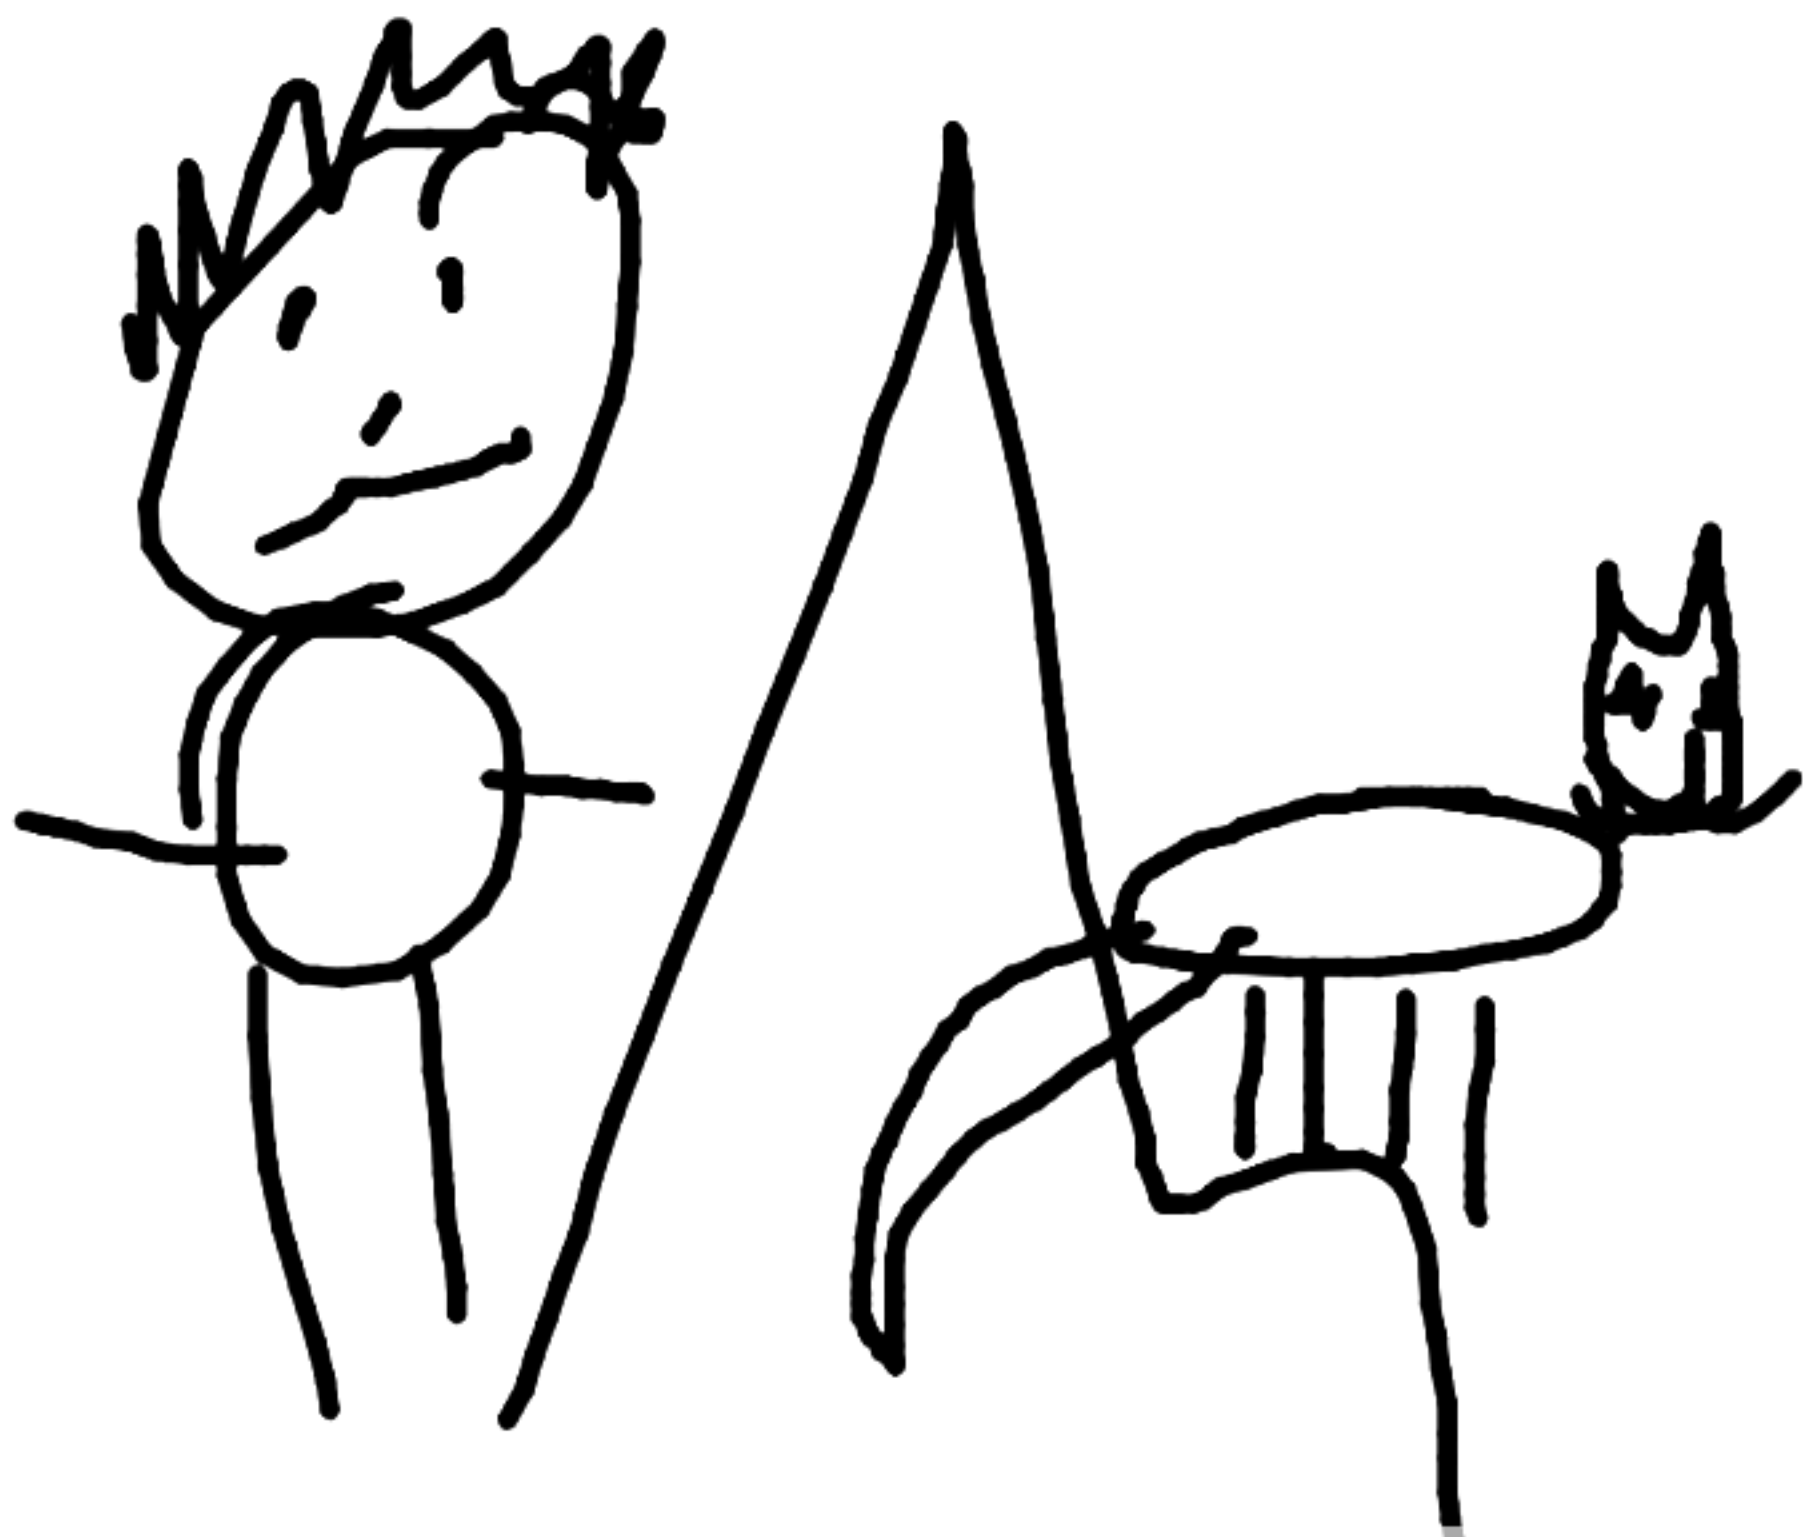

So there was another chief named Kimki.
One day he and the rest of the tribe were leaving.

Ramo was left on the island. So Karana jumped after him.

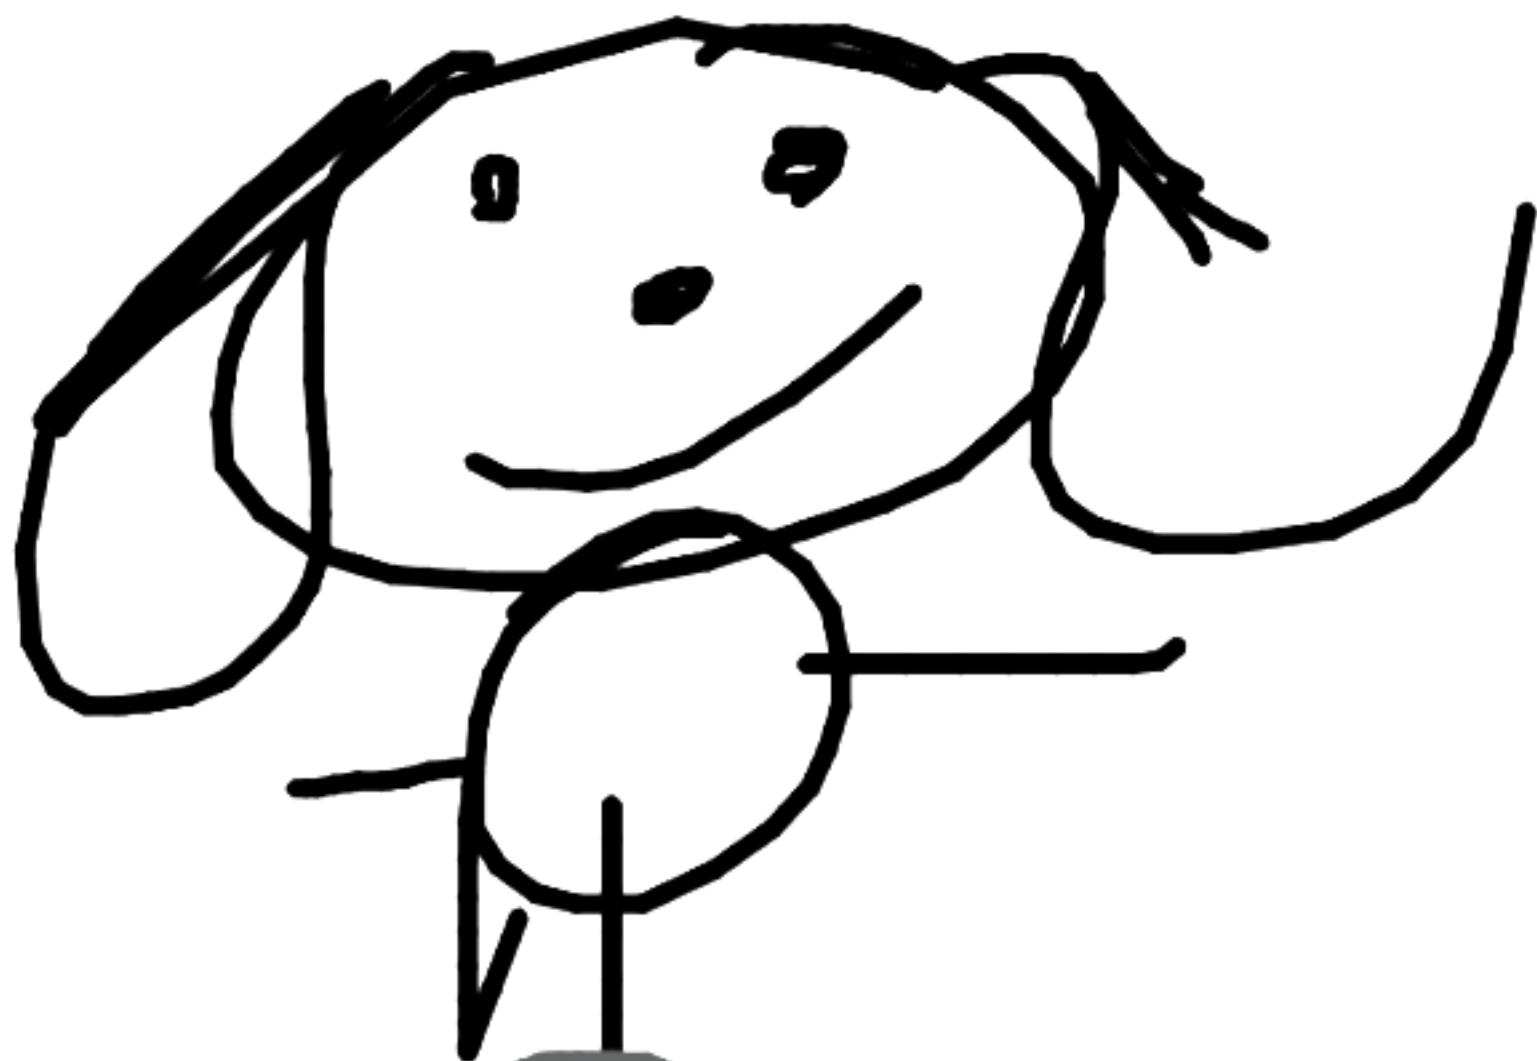

Now they were both stranded on the island!

Karana and Ramo were scared. Karana and Ramo were left. So one day Ramo wanted to prove to himself that he was a man. So he went to the wild dogs to hunt.

But Ramo got killed. Karana ran to him. She cried and cried! She also buried him.

Karana decided to make her home on top of a rock. She didn't like any place else.

Karana vowed to kill the dogs that killed her brother.

Karana pushed fire into the dogs's cave.

Karana threw the aluets's jewelry cause she was not one of them.

Karana burnt the village down because of bad memories.

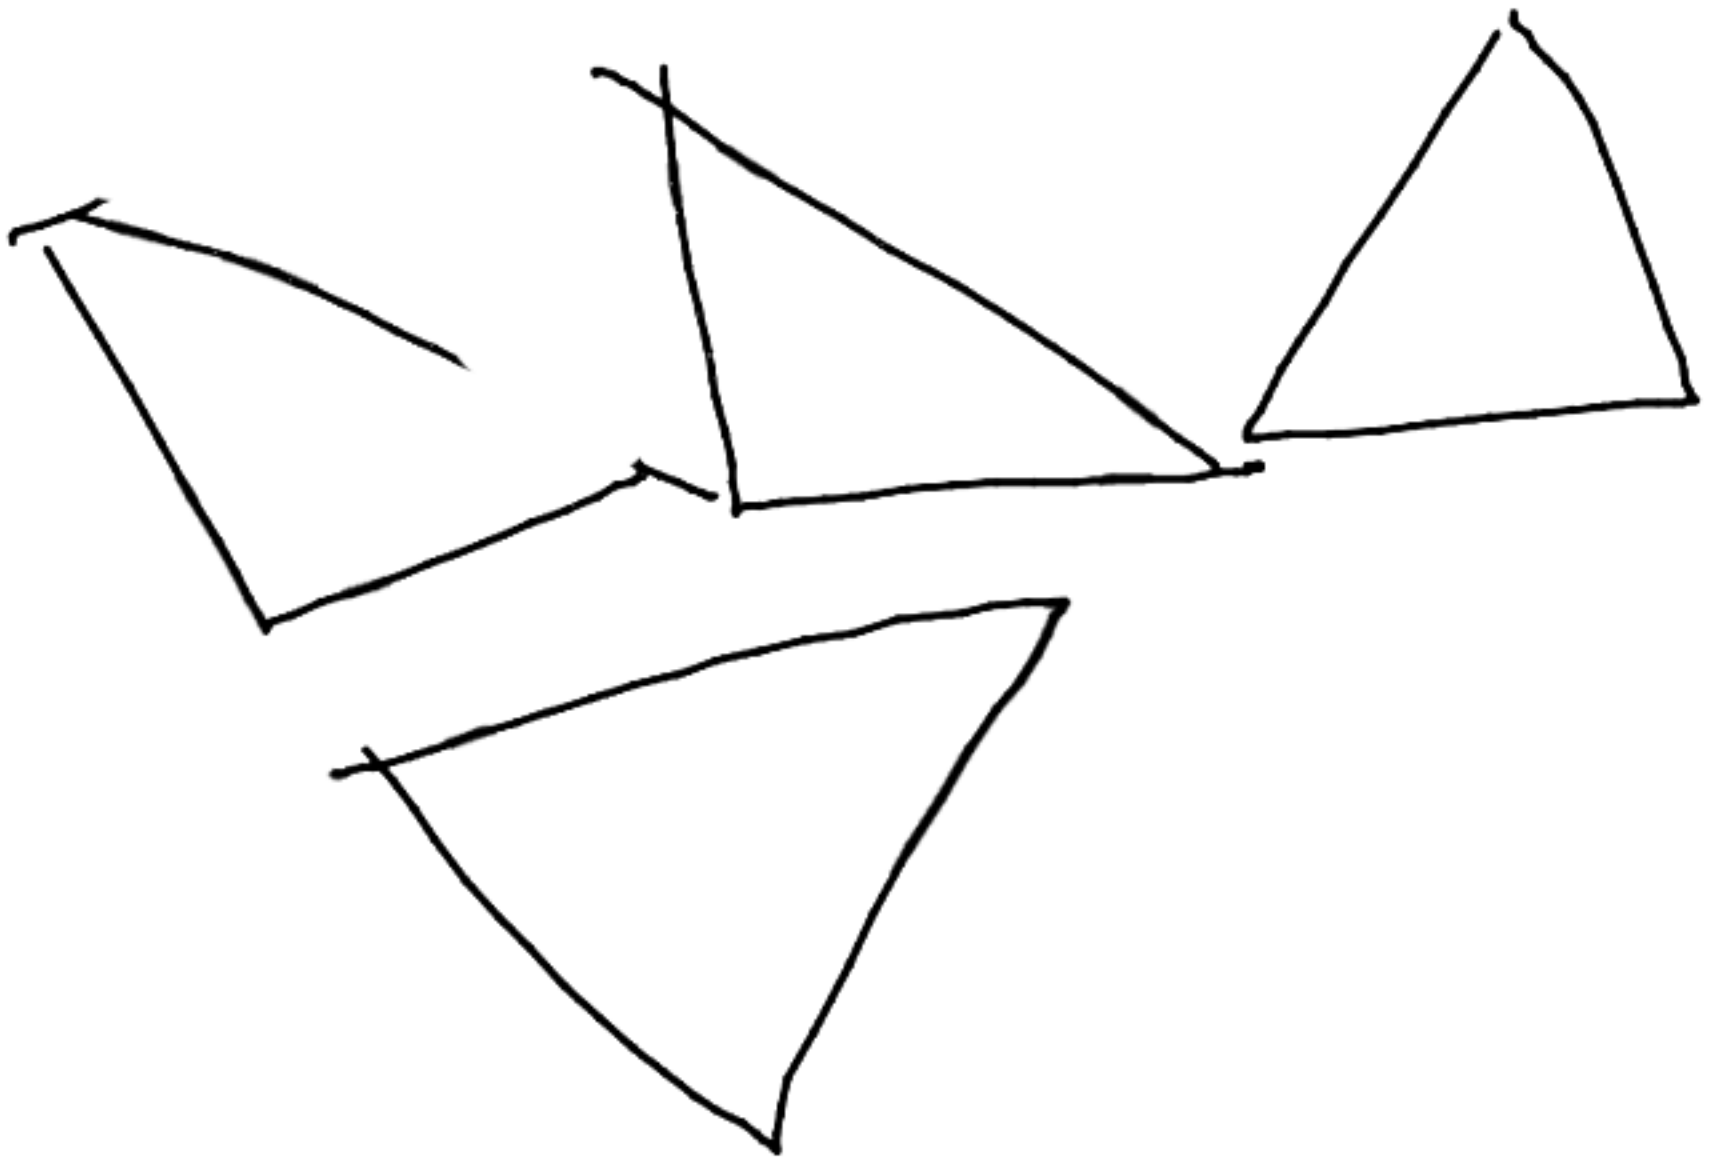

Karana killed 3 wild dogs but not the leader.

Two bull sea elephants started a fight.
The bull sea elephants were battling.
Karana would get the loser's teeth.

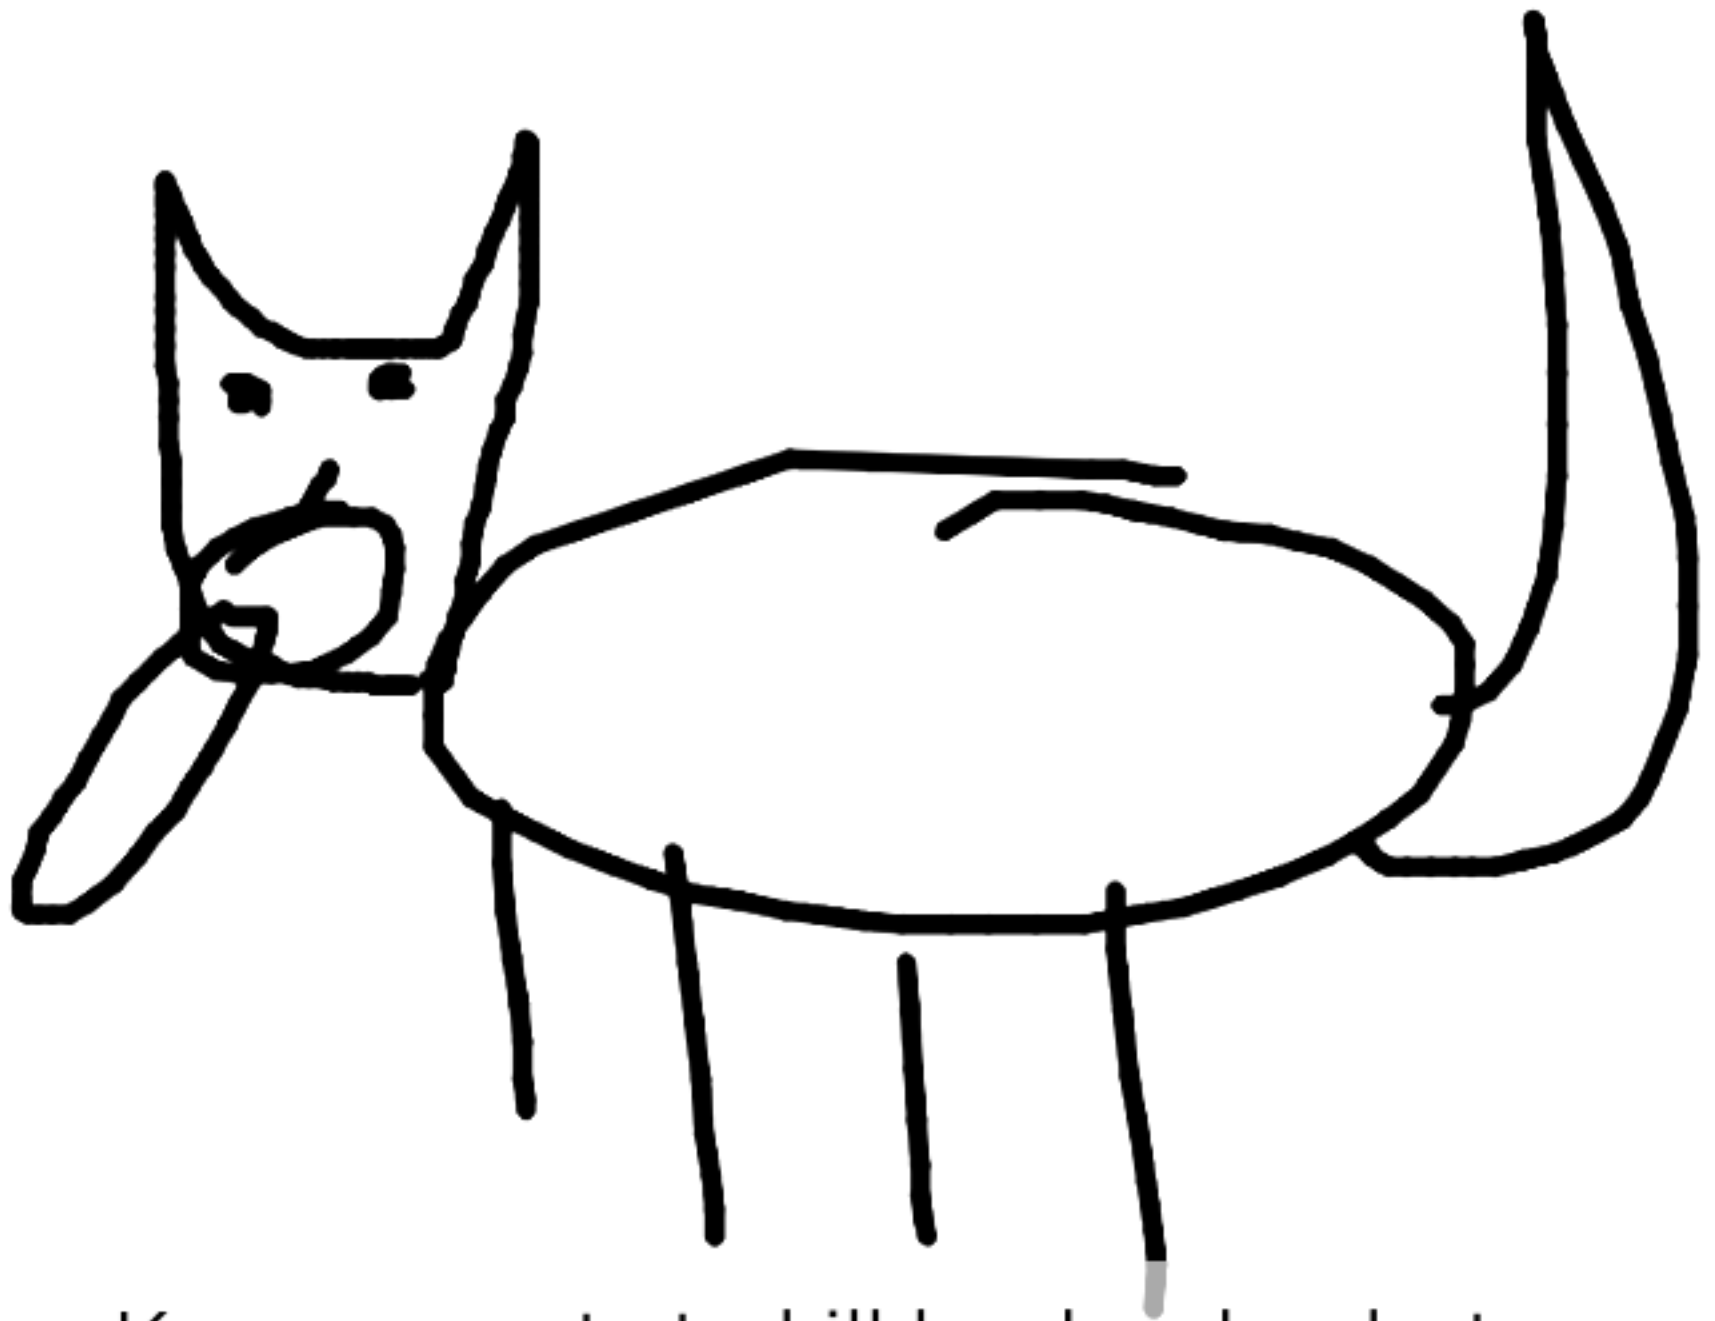

Karana trips on a rock and gets hurt.
Leader dog watches her.

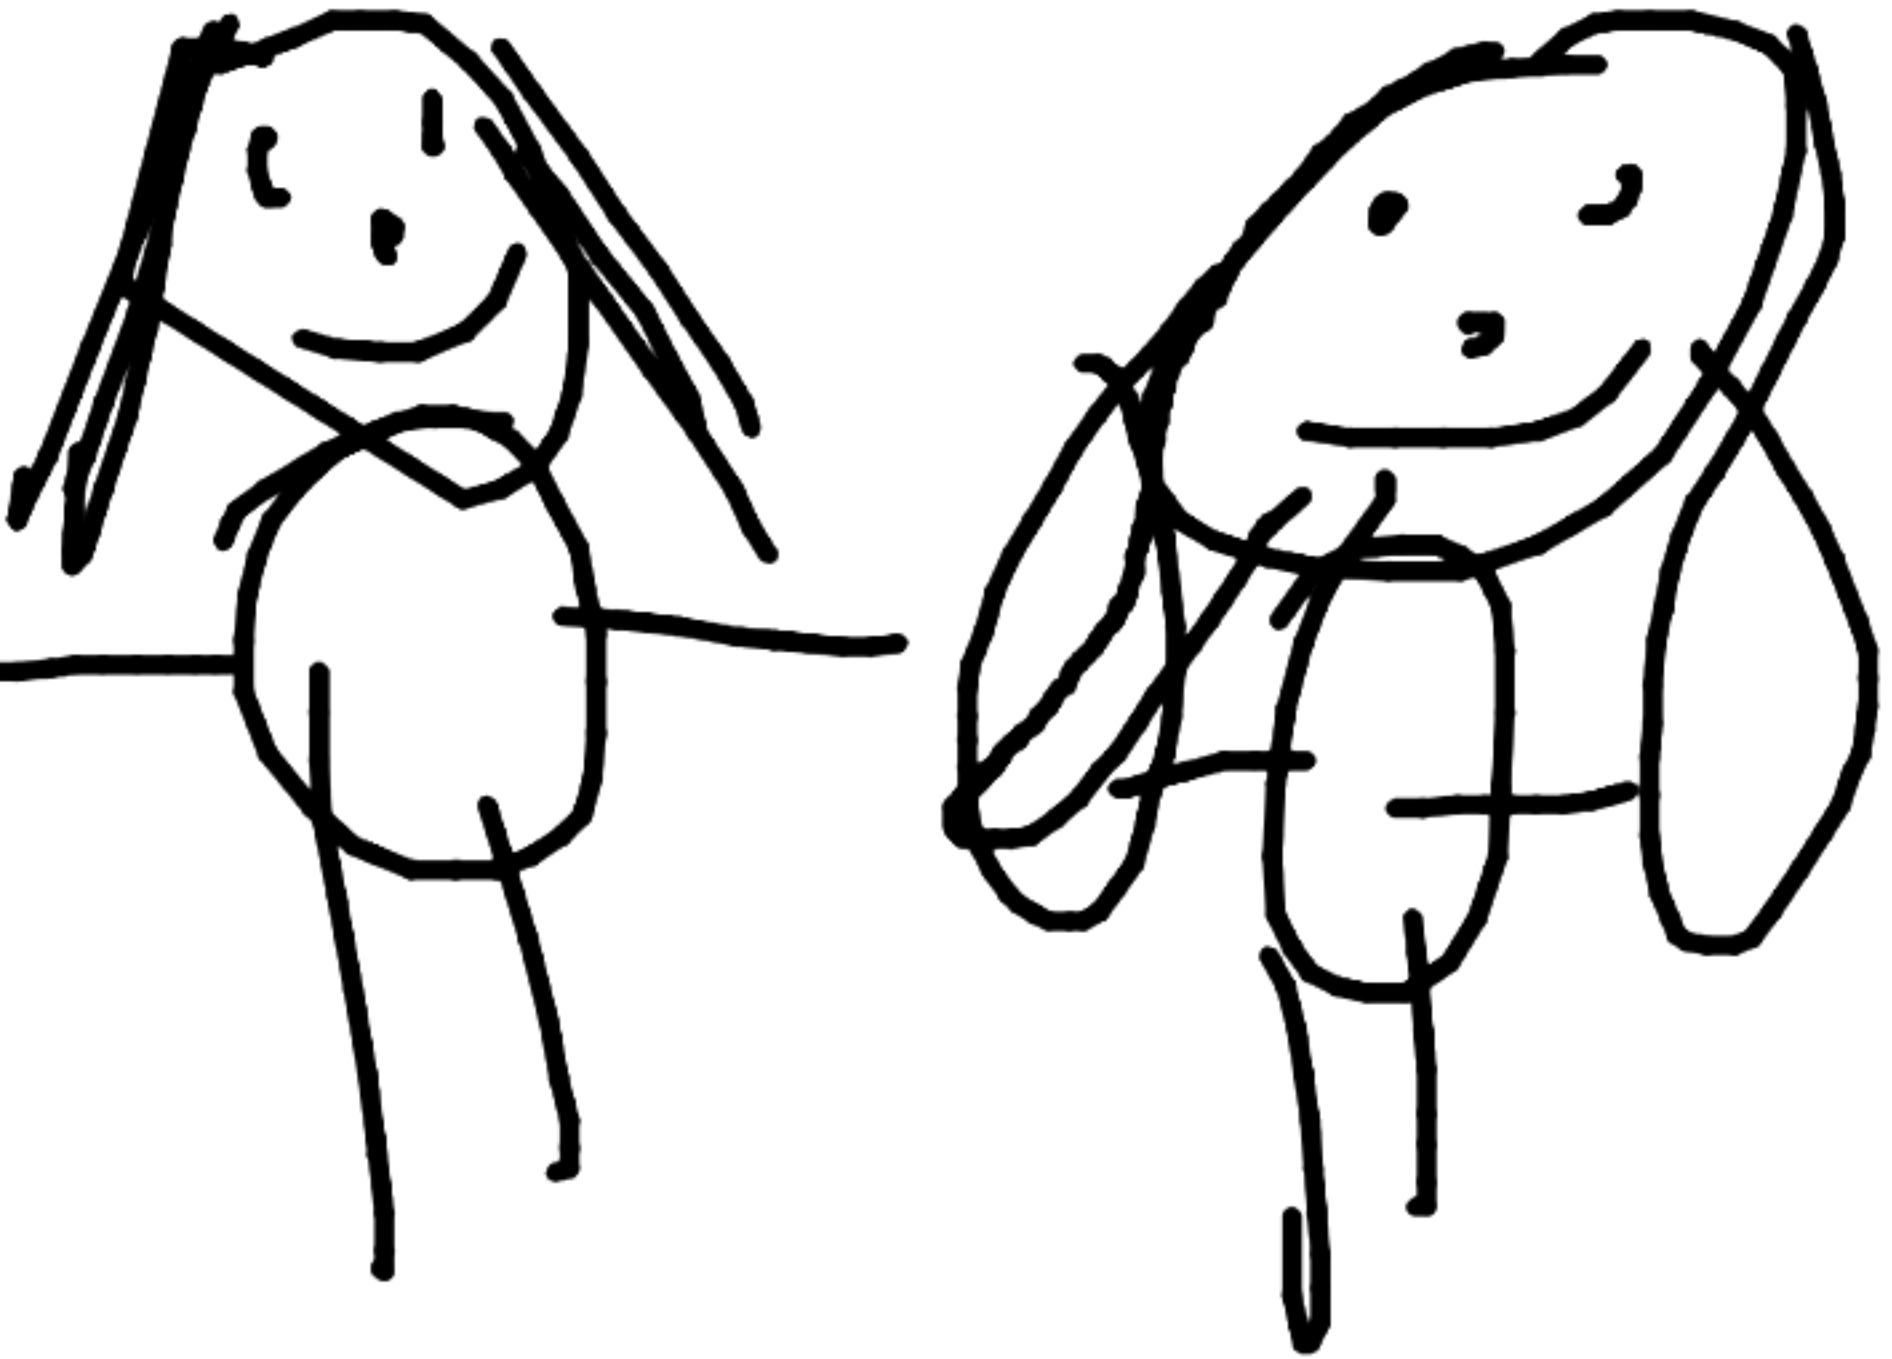

Karana got 4 bull teeth to kill the leader.

Karana goes to California but ship starts leaking. So she returns.

Karana wants to kill leader dog but shows compassion. So Karana carries the dog to her home and names it Rontu.

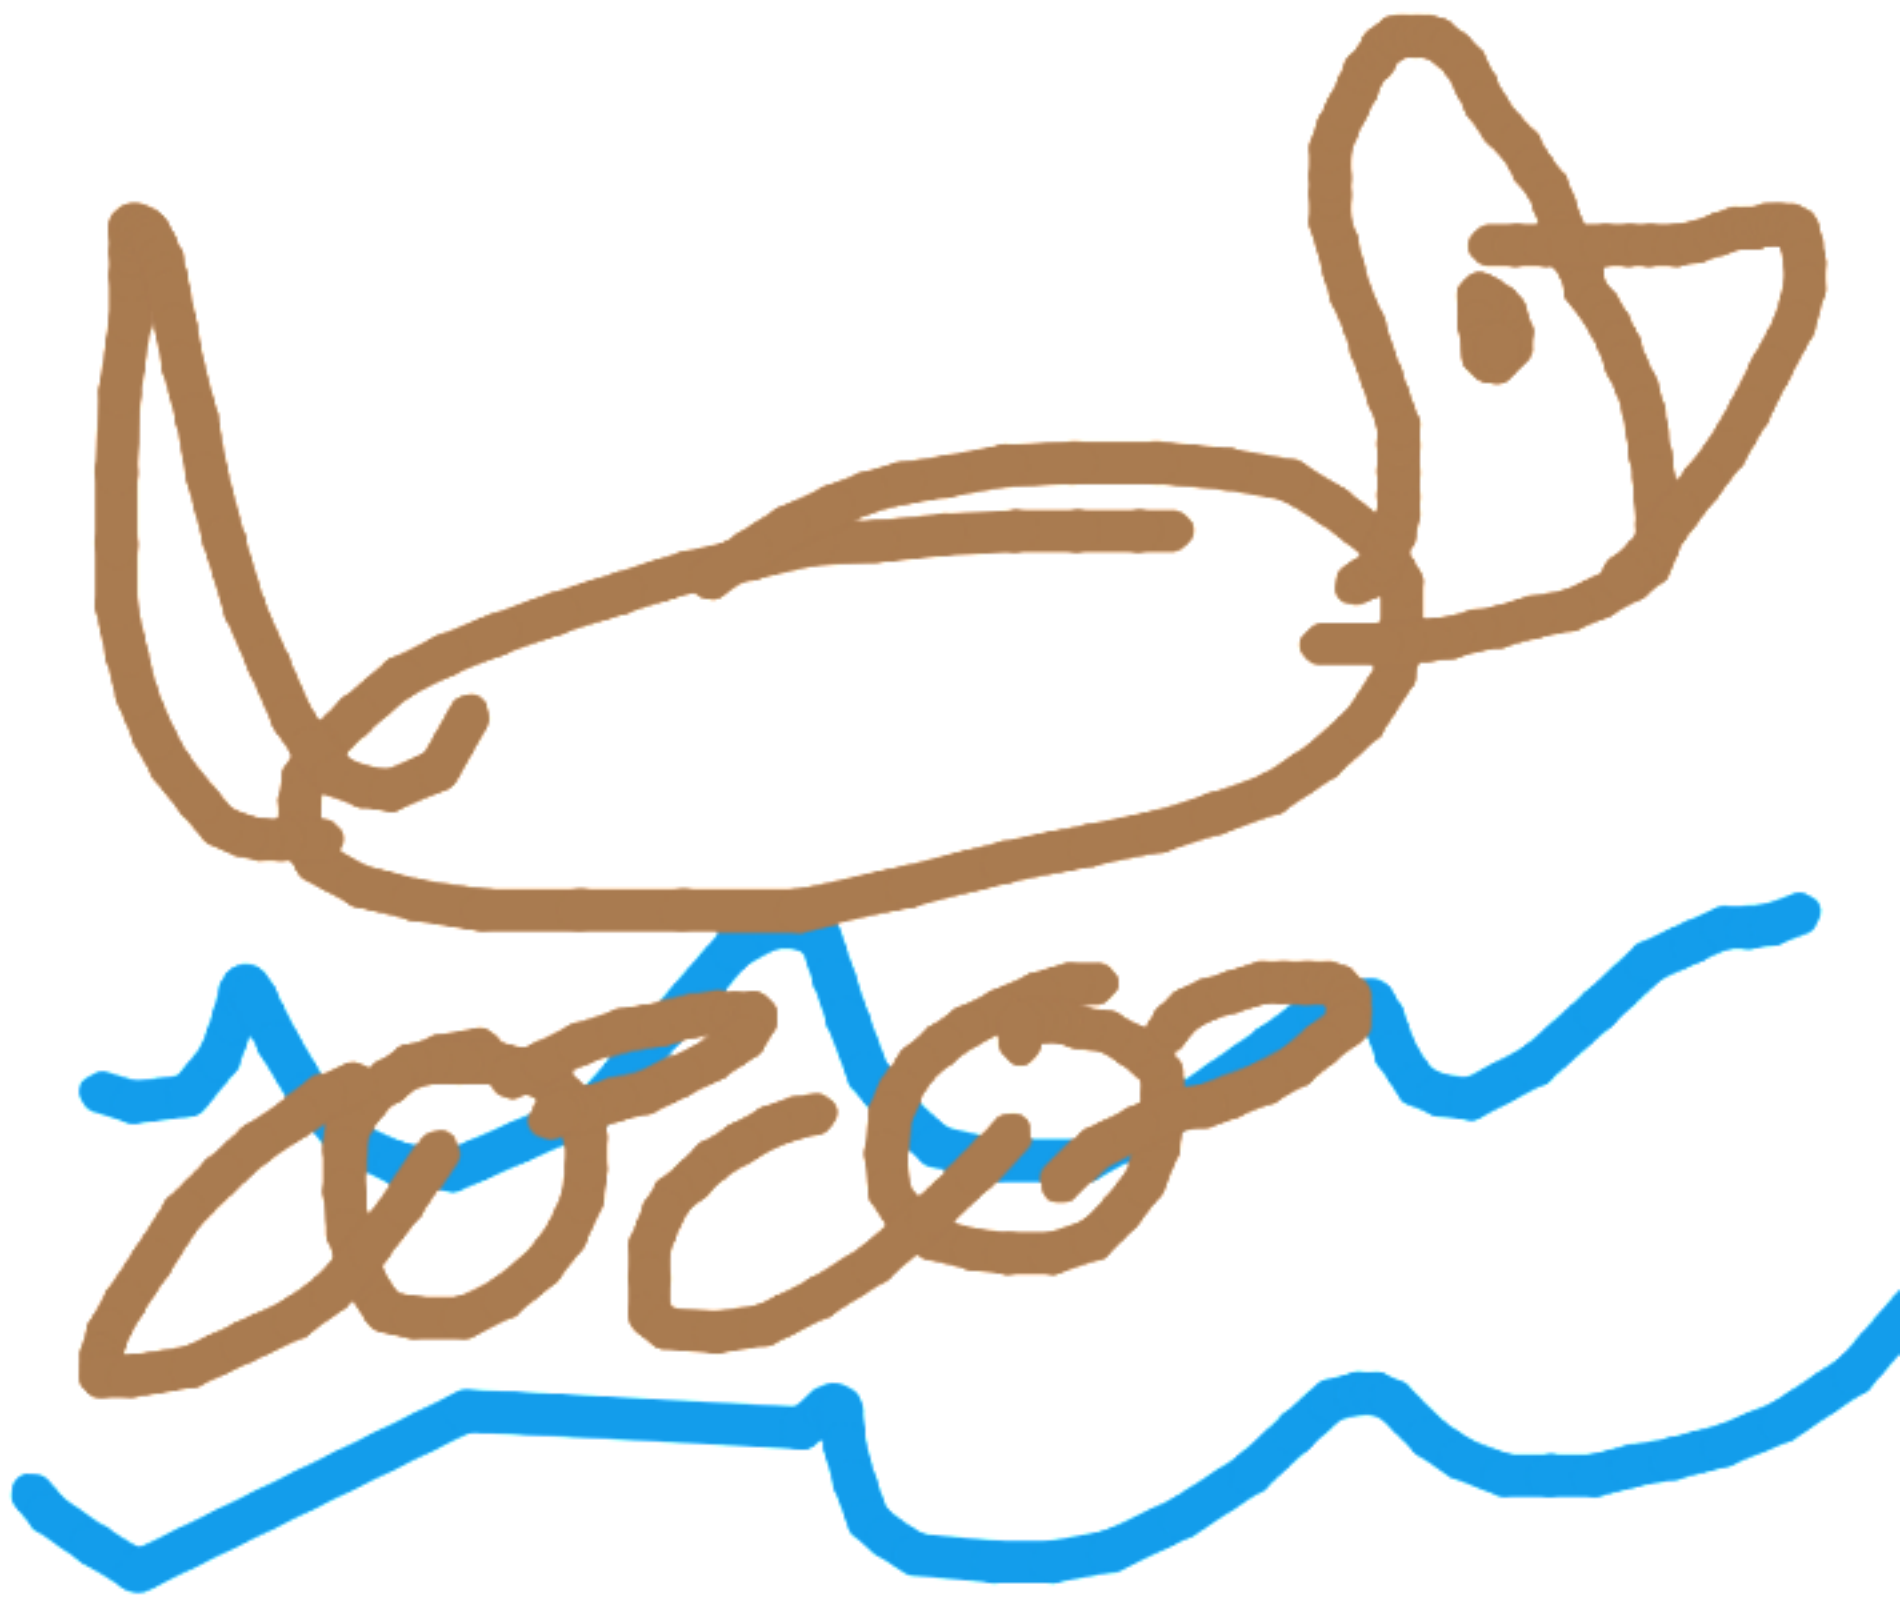

One day the Aleuts came back. A girl named Tutoc makes friends with Karana.

A few days later Tutok had to go away.
They said goodbye.

Karana found an otter and named it Monanee. The otter was in a pool. She thought it was a boy.

Later, Monanee swam away cause he was old enough. Karana saw it's babies and found out Monanee was a girl so she renamed her Wonanee.

One day Rontu died. It was really sad.
Karana cried alot. Rontu was too old.

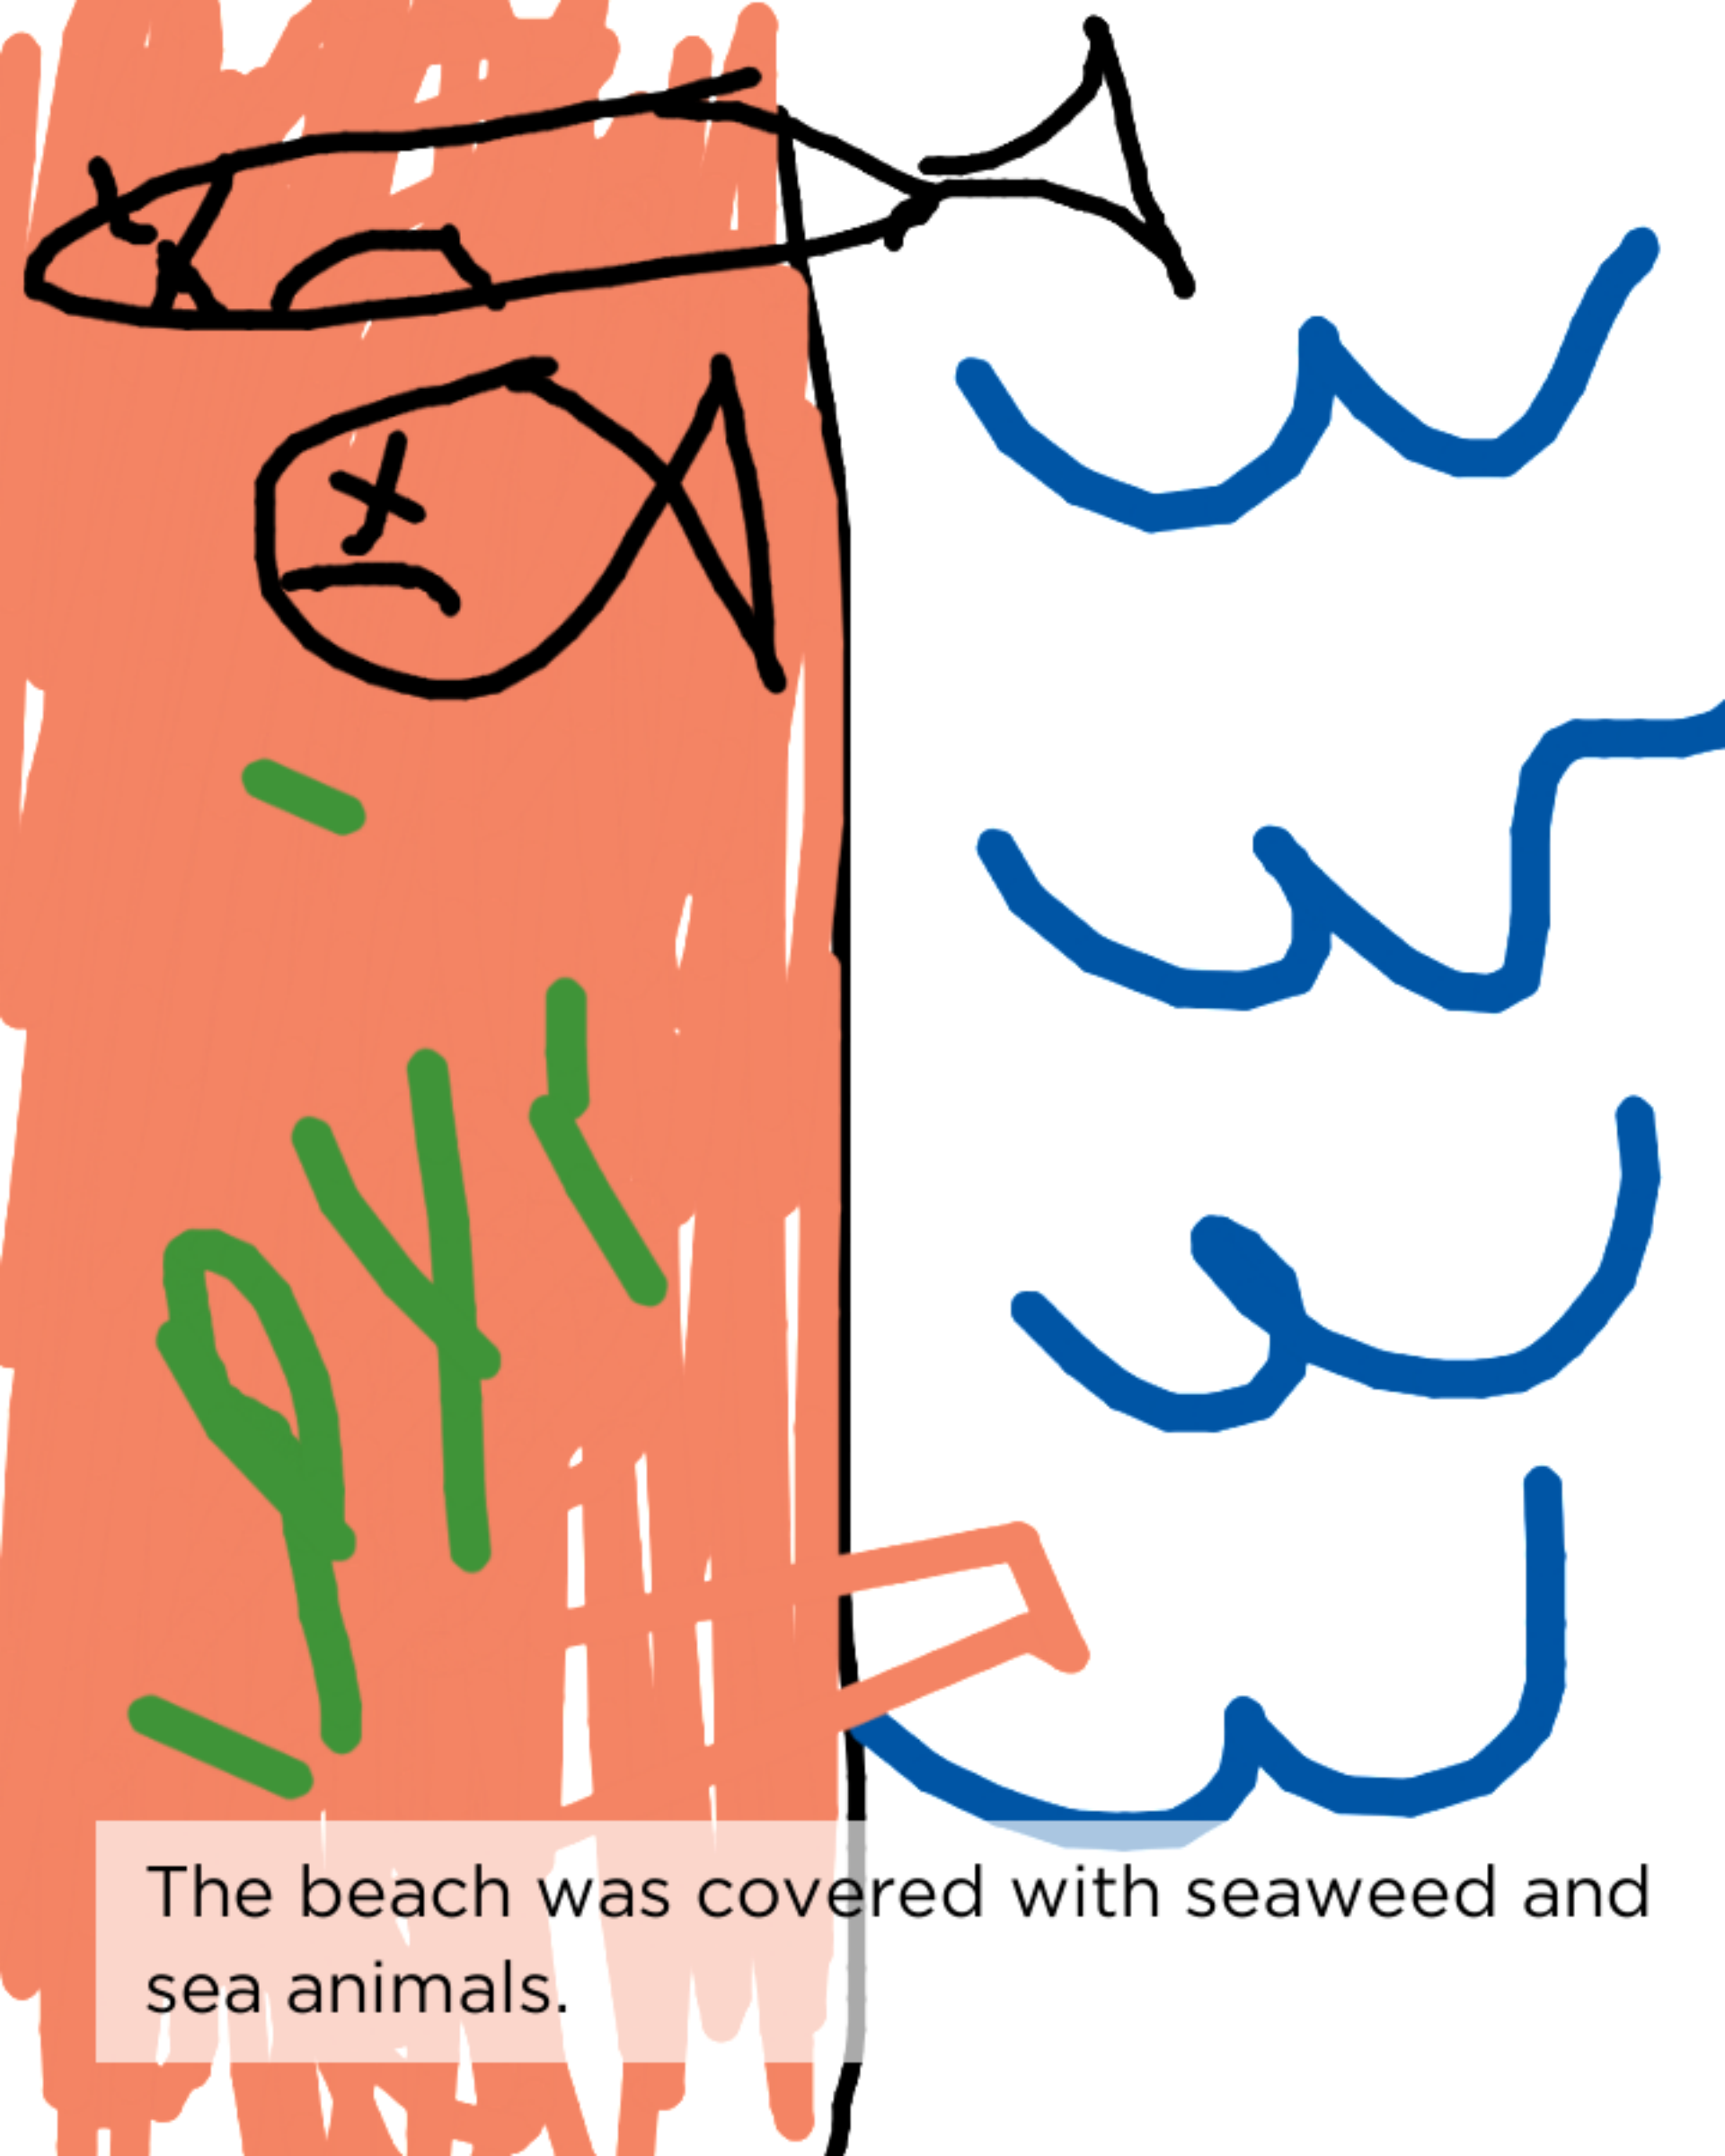

Karana got a new dog. She put stuff in the water to make them sleep. Karana carries a dog to her home. Karana named her new dog Rontu Aru because he was Rontu's son.

One day there was a tsunami.

The tsunami was really strong. Karana hang on to a cliff.

The beach was covered with seaweed and sea animals.

After 18 years on the island someone came for her. She took Rontu Aru and the birds and went to Santa Barbara for the rest of her life.

I live in San Jose and I love to draw!

It's a book report about a girl named Karana
