

How Zachary Got Flat

Written and Illustrated by Zachary

Zachary went to a pizza store. He waited for the pizza. Then, when the server was going to serve the pizza, he dropped it! It landed on Zachary. Now Zachary is flat!

Zachary loved being flat. Flying in the wind was cool. Flat Zachary was going home from school, then the wind picked up, and Flat Zachary started to fly. He got to see the whole city. He flew back home. Flat Zachary had a fun ride home!

Zachary had problems being flat. Falling in sewer pipes was a BIG problem. Flat Zachary was walking along the sidewalk, then he got surprised. He started falling through the grate in the road. Flat Zachary got stuck down there! When he stayed in there for a while, he got sick. It smelled bad. He started calling for help, a man dropped a string down and pulled him up! He needs a bath.

I'm 10 1/4 years old and I have really annoying brothers.

This is about me when I'm flat.
