

End of the Blue Dolphins Book Review

Written and Illustrated by Aaran

. At the Beginning of the story Captain Orlav wants more otter than Chief Chowig. Chief Chowig did not accept it and Captin Orlav shoots Cheif Chowig and some warriors down.

In the middle of the story Ramo was killed by wild dogs. Karana held Ramo's hand but he did not move.

In the end of the story Karana made a house out of whale bones. The house had a gate with a door knob. The back of the house was a rock.

My favorite part was the part when Karana was stranded on the island. I liked that part because Karana made feather dresses and found some pets. Her pets were a dog and some birds.

My least favorite part was the part when Rontu died because Rontu was very cute. After Rontu died Karana found Rontu's baby and she name's him Rontu Arroo.

My name is Aaran and my favorite Coler is Blue
